

Partitioning of the total population in Belgium

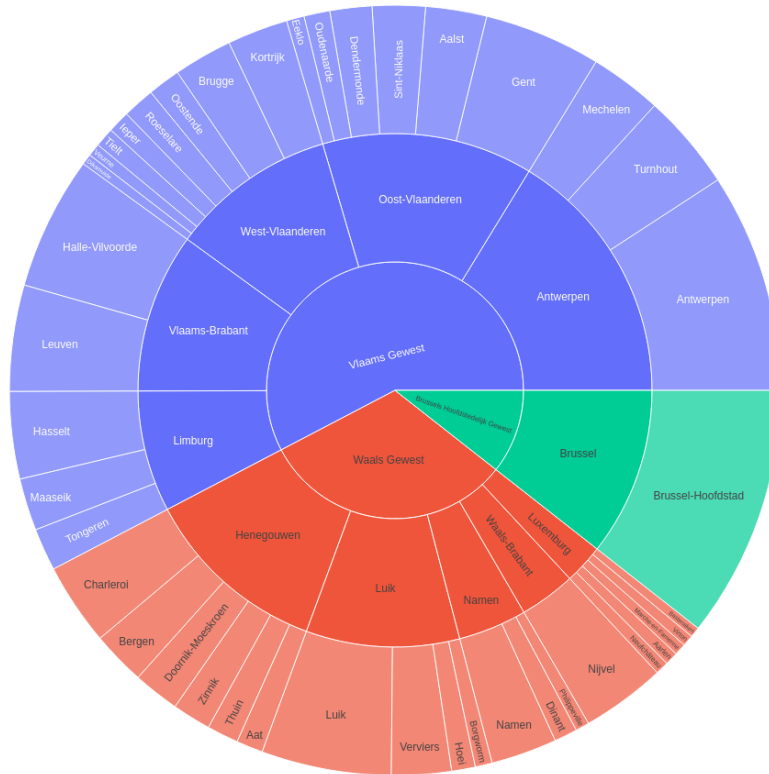

Figure 1: Sunburst graph representing distribution of inhabitants with colors differentiating regions, while sector area indicates the population proportion. The center circle represents the regions, the middle represents the provinces and the outer represents the districts.